

** The Other Side of Why ****

"It's More Than Just Games, It's The Service Adventure"

When things go wrong we often ask, "Why did this happen to ME?"

We question Divine providence and wonder "Where is God?"

I hear and read over and over one side of "Why?"

There is another side of "Why?"

We don't hear people asking "Why" when things go right.

When we have a roof over our heads and aren't being evicted,

When we find something at a cheap instead of a high price,

When our children aren't going haywire and on drugs,

When the bread falls buttered side up,

When our parents are still alive,

When the car isn't breaking down,

When we stumble but don't fall,

When our bodies aren't aching,

When we do avoid the accident,

When we have a good spouse,

When our bellies are full,

When it is a pretty day,

When we aren't at war,

When we do have a job,

When it does go right.

Perhaps you should ask the other side of "Why?"
